

from generation to generation for about 270 years as an occasion to ward off bad luck, perform ablutions, and pray for a bountiful harvest. At night, the main thoroughfare is filled with 280 bamboo poles with glowing lanterns. As chants of "Dokkoisho, dokkoisho" resonate, the performers deftly balance the bamboo poles on the palms, foreheads, shoulders, and hips. This artistry is also on display at daytime Kanto (Display of Special Feats), where performers vie with each other and pass their skills on to the next generation of performers. Inaniwa Udon

Inaniwa Udon is a dry noodle that originated in Inakawa, Yuzawa City at the beginning of the Edo period The Inaniwa Udon is thin and has a smooth taste. It is made using time-honored techniques such as stretching the noodles by hand.

More and more sugar is stored in the green soybeans in the field thanks to chicken with no excess fat. The more you chew, the more richness and flavor you get. The Local Hinai Chicker s considered as one of the top three Kiritanpo is made by mashing cooked new rice coarsely, putting it on skewers made of Akita cedar, and grilling it. During autumn people share the joy of harvest by boiling mushrooms and other vegetables with local Hinai chicken and then adding in Kiritanpo to make delicious stews. You can make miso Kiritanpo by

Local Sake

Akita boasts of both abundant rice and sake production. Delicious sake is brewed by almost 40 breweries using traditional techniques that
